A Continuation, Not A Commemoration!

Join activists and local community leaders to carry on the work of A. Philip Randolph, Bayard Rustin, & Martin Luther King Jr.'s March on Washington for Jobs and Freedom. This local event is a continuation of the original March in 1963 that fought discrimination, civil rights abuses, & defended voting rights. Combat hate crimes, hate speech, & prejudice. Stand against white supremacy, disinformation, & uphold freedom, equality, & justice for all.
